Our mission is to deliver an exceptional experience to our employees and guests through our unique heritage, passion, and commitment to quality. The core values of Villa Restaurant Group are what we believe to be the foundation of our organization. Our core values not only describe what is important to VRG, but also identify the desired behaviors we ask of our team members every day. These core values are based on the dream Michele Scotto had to build an organization with strong principles and family hospitality in mind. Michele's vision was to "treat everyone in a warm, friendly, genuine manner, as you would family." A vision built in 1964 and one which still holds true today.
