Business Description

Our organization has been owned and operated for two generations. James and Karen McIntyre are passionate about giving back to the community and foster an environment of giving back to the communities that our McDonald's serve. Our stores promote fundraising events and community service outreach programs.

The backbone of our Brand is, and always has been, a commitment to a set of core values that define who we are and how we run our business and restaurants.

When we live our values every day and use them to make decisions – big and small – we define McDonald's as a brand our people, and the people we serve can trust.
